15TH YEAR. NO. 208.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, FEB. 12, 1900.

TWO CENTS

BESIEGED SUFFERING

Reduced to Eating Horseflesh, at Kimberley.

BOERS PRESS THE TOWN CLOSER.

Apparently Have Taken All Their Big Guns From Mafeking to Shell the Place—Part of the Force From Modder River Gone There.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—4:40 a. m.—Startting intelligence comes from Kimberley in the Cape newspapers just received by mail in London. It appears that since In. 8 the rations at Kimberley have been for the most part horseflesh, so repugnant to women and children that many refuse to eat. It also appears that the death rate has been heavy, and that the privations of the garrison have been increasing steadily.

This news is startling because the censor has not allowed it to be cabled. Possibly such conditions explain the presence of Lord Roberts at Modder river and the apparent preparations for an advance from that point.

London, Feb. 12.—The war office issued the following dispatch, dated Feb. 11, from the general commanding at Cape Town:

"Clements reports from Rensburg that on Friday, Feb. 9, the Boers tried to turn his right flank, but were beaten off. Position maintained. Casualties small.

"Kimberley reports that the Boer fighting force was apparently increased on Wednesday, Feb. 7. Next day the Boers commenced the construction of trenches to the east nearly parallel to the Glacis and 4,000 yards from the Premier mine. A native reported that he accompanied some Boers who left Mafeking for Kimberley, carrying with them a six-inch gun and a quick-firing field gun. The former opened fire on Kimberley.

"Otherwise the situation is unchanged."

Modder River, Saturday, Feb. 10.—Apparhntly the Boers have Wought all their big guns from Mafeking to shell

Our naval guns shelled Magersfontein today, but the Boer guns were silent.

It is supposed the enemy have withdrawn their artillery. They are blowing up the permanent way beyond Morton siding.

The Boers still man their trenches, but their numbers are apparently reduced. The bulk of their force has gone to Kimberley or toward our flank.

The Highlanders returned last night. Before retiring they found the bodies of 12 Boers. They believe the losses of the enemy were heavier than those of the British, because that in addition to the dead Boers found several had been buried.

JOUBERT TRYING

TO OUTFLANK BULLER.

Such a Rumor at Durban—Churchill Said
Buller Would Try Again—Explains Situation.

Durban, Feb. 12.—It was rumored here that General Joubert was marching with a column of 6,000 men to outflank General Buller.

London, Feb. 12.—Winston Churchill sent from Frere Camp to The Morning Post a long review of the situation. He said:

General Buller always thought it impossible to hold the triangle of Natal north of the Tugela, but the initial mistake was made owing to the miscalculation of the Boer strength and the fact that millions worth of stores had been collected at Ladysmith. From the first he regarded the relief of Ladysmith as a forlorn hope. He did not feel justified in ordering a subordinate to perform such a doubtful task.

The absence of good maps has cost much blood. An attempt to thrust the enemy back from Brakfontein or Doorn Kloof would have cost 3,000 men, and since at least two brigades must keep the door open behind us, too few would have remained to force the way to Ladymith. Moreover, Geueral Buller remembers that his army is the only army for the defense for the rest of Natal. Therefore he decided to withdraw and to try elsewhere.

Remembering that considerations of honor, more than policy, demand ceaseless efforts to reheve Ladysmith, the whole army, despite disappointments and retreat, regards General Buller with sympathy and trust such as are seldom seen even in fortunate circumstances.

Another fierce attempt will be made to force the Tugela. Great Britain must realize the ugly fact that the relief of Ladysmith would strain an army of 50,000 and that 100,000 men would not be too many. The country, therefore, must be prepared for a heavy loss and perhaps for disappointment.

The security of southern Natal is our important consideration. The necessity of obtaining control of Delagoa bay is very apparent. The ingress of foreigners and war material is ceaseless. Surely a settlement with Portugal would be only a question of money.

VICTORIANS HAD TO RETIRE.

Boers Got on a Hill and Fired Down on Them. RENSBURG, Feb. 12.—A picket of five

Rensburg, Feb. 12.—A picket of five Victorian rifles, after holding a post for some hours Saturday, was forced to retire, the Boers getting on a hill and firing down upon them. Three were slightly wounded, one is missing and one escaped unhurt.

Out of a patrol from Tjusfontein, under Captain Hamilton, composed of eight of General French's scouts only two Tasmanians and three scouts returned. The others were captured by the Boers.

Roberts Made Complaints.

Modder River, Feb. 11.—Lord Roberts has addressed another letter to Presidents Kruger and Steyn, complaining of the wanton destruction of property in Natal.

OUTFLANKED BRITISH.

Boers Got Around Them on Two Sides,
Near Rensberg - English Convoys Gotten Through.

Rensberg, Feb. 12.—The Boers outflanked the British here Friday. A considerable force of the enemy was threatening the British communications between Rensberg and Slingersfontein, 12 miles away, and, during a reconnoissance by some Inniskillings and 20 Australians from Slingersfontein, the Boers were discovered attempting to get a gun into position to shell the British camp.

into position to shell the British camp.

The Australians, having come into very close contact with the enemy, took cover under a hill about 9,000 yards from the camp. Thereupon the Boers took up a position with a view of preventing their retirement. Some Burghers got within 200 yards of the Australians and called upon them to surrender. They replied by fixing bayonets and shouting defiance.

Sergeant Edwards and two men made a dash, and, gallopiug under a hot fire, passed a number of hills held by the Boers, took word that the Australians were safe, and confident of holding the enemy at bay and of getting out after dark, which they eventually did,

The Iniskilling prevented the enemy getting their guns in position. The Australians lost one man killed and three wounded.

The convoys were successfully gotten to Slingersfontein Saturday, the British escorts having had several brushes with parties of from 20 to 30 Boers infesting the region. Lieutenant Colonel Page, with a section of artillery and 150 horse, got one large convoy through by shelling the enemy out of the road.

The Boers also outflanked us on the west, placed a gun in position at Bastards Nek and fired on one of our outposts, driving off 1,000 sheep.

In Wednesday's brush two Australian correspondents, Messrs. Sambie and Sales, who fell behind, were captured. The British took two prisoners.

ALLEGED TREASONABLE DOCUMENTS

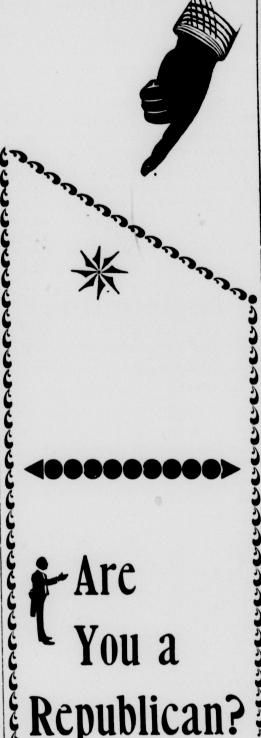

Assistant Postmaster General Heath Refuses to Advise J. W. Stillman.

Washington, Feb. 12.—James W. Stillman, of Boston, has applied to the postoffice department for a ruling as to whether or not a pamphlet published by him under the title, "A Protest Against the Presidedt's War of Criminal Aggression," is mailable under the postal laws. First Assistant Postmaster General Heath has written to Mr. Stillman. "All I care to say," said the reply in part, "is that before attempting to mail any matter that is calculated to give aid or comfort to any person now engaged in an insurrection against the authority of the United States, you had better seek the advice of a friend better skilled in the law, whose services you will probably require in case the government considers your essays of sufficient importance to pay attention to them."

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 12.—Ellworth P. Drake, of Elmira, N. Y., who was reported fatally burned during the progress of a fire at the Atlantic Oil Refining company's works, died in a hospital here.

Firebrand Arrows Shot at Towns In Luzon.

ALBAY WAS ALMOST DESTROYED.

Filipinos Also Shoot From Hills at United States Garrisons—Scatter When Pursued—Smallpox Attacks the American Troops Along the Railroad.

Manila, Feb. 12.—The insurgents in .
Albay province, Luzon, adopted harrassing tactics against the towns which the Americans have garrisoned. They camp in the hills and maintain a constant fire upon the American outposts. When the troops sally against them, they scatter, returning when the Americans retire.

They shoot burning arrows and have thus burned a large part of the town of Albay. Indeed, most of the larger towns in that province are practically deserted except by the garrisons. Scarcely any of the inhabitants return to their homes. They are camping in the interior, and it is supposed armed insurgents prevent them going back. It is reported that there is much suffering among them owing to the lack of food. As a result of these conditions the hemp business in that section is seriously hindered, and ships going for cargoes are compelled to take gangs of coolies to do their loading. Hemp held in the interior is quite inaccessible.

Colonel Bell will take two regiments and a battery through the provinces of North Camarines and South Camarines, going there on transports. Many insurgents retreated to that part of the island from Cavite and Batangas provinces.

Another expedition will soon start to garrison towns along the north coast of the Island of Mindanao.

Guerilla warfare continues south of Manila. Two attempts have been made to ambush the Americans. Colonel Schwan, while returning to Manila with his staff and an escort of a hundred cavalry from Batangas, was attacked by the insurgents. The latter were dispersed, but the Americans had five men

Lieutenant Colonel Beacom, with six companies of the Forty-second infentry, held about a two-hour's fight with General Pio Del Pilar's command, which attempted to ambush the Americans along the trail through Morong province, near the lake. Here also the insurgents were dispersed, but the Americans had several wounded, among them a captain.

Another expedition is proceeding northward from Subig.

northward from Subig.

It is reported that the insurgent general Alejandro has recovered from his wound and has assembled a large force in that district.

The plague continues. Eight cases were reported last week among the natives and Chinese. There is no excitement, however, and business and social life are undisturbed.

Smallpox is prevalent among the natives along the railroad in the towns in the northern coast. Two officers of the 36th volunteer infantry have died of the disease and another officer and sev-ral soldiers have been stricken.

AN ALLIANCE PRACTICALLY EXISTS

England and Portugal Have About Reached an Agreement.

London, Feb. 12.—There exists what practically amounts to an offensive and defensive alliance between Great Britain and Portugal.

The real reason for the tremendous military activity is a determination to convince Portugal that it is advisable to meet Great Britain's demands regarding the ports essential for carrying on the Boer war, namely, Delagoa Bay and Beira, and at the same time, having secured Portugal's assent to every proposition made, be in a position to support that country against a united European opposition.

Portugal's minister here, Senor Pinto de Soveral, is almost as much an Englishman as a Portuguese, and his government is only too willing to do everything, far beyond the bounds of neutrality, to help Great Britain to protect Portugal. Lord Salisbury has this week taken definite measures regarding the aforementioned ports that can only be describéd as daring.

Portugal, bending to the modicum of coercion and convinced that Great Britain is able to uphold her, has acquiesced until there practically exists an alliance of the strongest fiber between Great Britain and Portugal. Yet for reasons of diplomacy nothing would be more quickly officially denied in London or Lisbon

ANTI-TRUST CONFERENCE OPENED.

Sulzer Said the Remedy Was to Enforce Present Laws.

C:HCAYO, Feb. 12.—The anti-trust conference opened here to-day. Congressman Sulzer, in an interview, said:

"The remedy for the trust evil is a simple one; enforce the present laws. There is no lack of laws to deal properly with the question, but there is a sad lack of officials with the courage and honesty to enforce them. Right there lies the whole truth."

J. R. Sovereign, former master workman of the Knights of Labor, said:

"The trust evil will find a corrective in itself to a large extent. Over capitalization and restriction of production will work the trusts' downfall. They so restrict production and advance prices that they will restrict consumption until they are ruined."

Tongaline was highly recommended to me and I determined to give it a thorough trial. I took six or eight teaspoonful doses daily, diluted in water, with plenty of hot water and inside of two days was relieved to such an extent that the pain had almost entirely left me. By continuing the treatment a short time longer I was thoroughly cured and I am gratified to state that there has been no recurrence of the trouble. Since then I have frequently recommended Tongaline to friends suffering from rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, etc. and I have yet to hear of a single instance where it failed to cure the disease."

Daniel Webster, formerly of the postoffice force, now employed with an engineering corps building a Mexican railroad, has written a most interesting descriptive letter to Postmaster W. H. CROCKERY DEALERS Held Their Annual Meeting in New York and Discussed the Situation.

The National association of wholesale dealers in crockery and glassware last week held their annual meeting at the Holland house, New York. Representatives were present from all parts of the country. H. J. Jenness, of Detroit, was chosen president, and Charles S. Dennis, of Chicago, was elected secretary.

The reports from all sections were of a most satisfactory character, and the statement was made that business had never been so large or profitable on the amount invested. TAYLORTOTRY COURT.

Will Make Appeal to Federal Judge.

ACTION EXPECTED THIS WEEK.

The Case Involving the Minor Offices Comes Up Today Democrats' Application In Direuit Court, at Frankfort, Scheduled to Be Heard Today.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 12.—It is reported that the Republicans will this week seek to bring the contest for the offices of governor and lieutenant governor before the federal court. Former Governor Bradley, chief counsel for the Republicans in their application before Judge Taft to restrain the state election commissioners from proceeding with the contests for the minor offices, was in town in consultation with leading Republican lawyers.

The case involving the minor offices comes up to-day at Cincinnati and it is believed the other case will also be taken before Judge Taft, although it is not likely that anything will be done tions as to what had transpired in the until after to-morrow. On that day the application of the Democrats for an injunction to restrain Governor Taylor from interfering with the legislature will come up in the circuit court at Frankfort. The case has been continued from time to time by the Democrats, pending the peace negotiations. It is expected a temporary injunction will be granted. The case will then be taken to the court of appeals, the state court of last resort. Upon whether or not an appeal to the federal court will lie depends the Republican hope of relief from that quarter.

The legislature will remain here at least until it has receeived a report from the committee which, it was believed, would be appointed today to investigate conditions at Frankfort. It is not thought the members will return to the capital while soldiers are about the state buildings.

TAYLOR MADE TANGLE WORSE THAN EVER.

Complicated Legal Phase of the Trouble by the Recent Moves He

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 12.—The collapse of the peace negotiations through Governor Taylor's rejection of the Louisville agreement, and the latter's action in calling off the London legislature and reconvening the legislature in Frankfort and practically withdrawing the troops, have left the fight over state officers divested of many of its warlike features, but in a worse legal tangle than ever.

The new alighments of the parties after these developments are as follows: The Republicans will stand on the legality pf Governor Taylor's proclamation and adjourn ing the legislature to meet at London, and will hold to be illegal all acts of the Democratic legislature since the date of that proclamation. chief among which are the adoption of the reports of the contest boards and the declaration of the election of Governor Goebel and Lieutenant Governor Beckham.

If the Democratic legislators go back to Frankfort, the Republicans will insist that John Marshall and not L. H. Carter is lieutenant governor and president of the senate. They are free to take the matter of the governorship to the federal courts if they can make a case in which such an appeal will lie. If the Democrats refuse to return to Frankfort, they may attempt to force the attendance of absentees.

Meanwhile, they will press the suit before Judge Taft, involving the minor state offices.

The Democrats will dispute the legality of Governor Taylor's proclamation adjourning the legislature to London and back again to Frankfort. They will contend that the legislature was dispersed by soldiers and adjourned to Louisville by its own action in adopting with a working quorum a concurrent resolution to that effect; that its acts have been legal, including that by which Goebel was declared governor; that by another concurrent resolution it may return to Frankfort when conditions warrant, as it is the only authority by which its sessions may be transferred from one place to another; that under the law the legislature is the court of last resprt in a contest for the offices of governor and lieutenant governor. Meanwhile Beckham will be recognized by this legislature as the legal governor.

TROOPS LEAVE FRANKFORT.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 12.—Troops have poured out of Frankfort on special trains, and only the soldiers from Covington, Newport, Lexington and Morgantown were camped in the capitol

Governor Taylor remained quietly in the executive mansion and did not visit of rest, of which he stood greatly in disease. He was born in 1838.

Adjutant General Collier said that only a few companies of infantry would be kept on duty here for a short time to do police work around the capitol square and guard the public building. They would, he said, interfere in no way with the actions of the members of the Legislature. Access to the legislative halls would be as free and unrestrained as it was before Governor Taylor issued the proclamation declaring Frankfort in a state of insurrection.

Some of the members of the Republican legislature may arrive from London to-day. Six came last night.

No intimetion was received here as to whether or not the Democratic members of the legislature would adjourn their session at Louisville and come to Frankfort to take part in the general session. It is believed here, however, that they will do so, probably by the latter part of

If I were going to write as a reporter about tt, I would probably commence by saying the jury was a unit upon the guilt of the defendant; that one, two, or perhaps three of them, however, thought it well to go through the case, discuss the various phases of it, and see if the evidence, beyond a most reasonable doubt, would warrant such a verdict. Understand, this is all under the supposition that I am acting as a reporter and writing about something I am trying to guess about. I would probably explain the length of time the jury was out, by this: That by the time the two or three particularly interested men, in reviewing the case had gone over it with great care, assisted by careful notes, and the remainder of the jurors made a few comments, nine hours were con-

"He slept like a child," was the way the warden put it, referring to Molineux after his return to his cell from the court room on Saturday night. Sunday he arose at the usual hour, took exercise for one hour in the prison yard, ate the breakfast supplied by the prison caterer and read with composure the morning newspapers, after which he attended the usual Sunday services.

The condemned man had but one visitor Sunday, his grief-stricken and venerable father, who has not yet given up hope, and expects that the higher courts, which will be appealed to, will free his son. Gen. Molineux arrived at the prison about 8:30 o'clock Sunday morning and remained with the prisoner for about half an hour.

During the day young Molineux remained in his cell in murderers' row.

REBUKE OF FILIPINOS.

When Soldiers Get Drunk, They Call Them "Bad People"-Fearful Growth of Traffic.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Captain Frank M. Wells, chaplain of the First regiment of volunteers, who has just returned from the Philippine islands, spoke in Garfield Memorial church under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. on the liquor question in the Philippine islands. He declared that since the Americans took Manila four hundred places where liquor is sold had sprung up in Manila, while before the Americans came to the islands Manila had only three saloons. The Filipinos, he asserted, spoke well of the American soldiers save that they said the Americans were "bad people" when they had drunk too much liquor. Whisky, he said, was sold in the barracks at Iloilo, not over 150 feet from his headquarters, until he put an end to it by complaints to the colonel and provost marshal. The transport Indiana, on which he had returned to the United States, he characterized as a "whisky transport," and he said that he had unsuccessfully attempted to have the sale of liquors on transports stopped while in the Philippines.

EURRENCY BILL WILL PASS.

Opposition Admits a Formidable Majority-Final Vote to Be Taken on Thursday.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.-The currency bill will be voted on in the senate on Thursday, and all the time not given to such routine business as the introduction of bills and the presentation of reports and petitions will be devoted to this measure until it is acted upon by the senate. Monday and Tuesday will be consumed with set arguments for and against the bill prepared in advance and Wednesday and Thursday will be devoted to speeches not exceeding ten minutes in duration on the various amendments to the bill. The most important of these amendments is that offered by the Democrats through Senator Jones, of Arkansas, for the free coinage of silver on terms of equality with gold.

The Democrats count upon getting all the Democrats, Populistic and Silver Republican votes except those of Senators Caffery and Lindsay, Gold Demoerats, for their free coinage amendment, but they will still fall far short of the necessary number. No one doubts the passage of the bill by a large reajority on the final vote. Senator Aldrich says he counts upon a majority of twenty or twenty-two votes. The opposition do not concede so many, but admit the total against them is formidable.

TO BRING UP QUAY CASE.

Friends Believe They Can Do So After the Financial Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—The friends of Senator Quay say they fully expect to be able to get consideration of the resolution in his behalf immediately after the financial bill is disposed of in the senate, but there is unquestionably. a disposition on the part of some of the Republican senators to crowd the matter over and take up either the Porto Ricon or the Hawaiian bill, the chances between these two being favorable to the Porto Ricon measure.

Chairman Knox says there is imperative need of early enactment of an organic act for Hawaii, as it has become apparent that there is much doubt of the extent of the power granted to the local government of Hawaii by the provisions of the joint resolution of annexation, and in many important respects there is something like an interregnum in

THE HOTEL BELLBOY.

He Plans to Have One Day of Fun and Revenge.

"Some day when I have accumulated a stake," said one of the bright bellboys at the Blossom House the other day, "I am going to have some fun."

"What are you going to do?" a by stander asked

"I am simply going to some big hotel in Chicago or St. Louis and live for a day." and the boy paused to let the remark soak in.

"And that's your idea of a good time, is it?" queried the curious lis-

"Hold on! I am not through yet. 1 am going to a big hotel with three big grips, and I am going to make the bell boy carry all of them up to the room for me. I won't carry even the small est one. Then as soon as I am in my room I am going to have some ice wa ter. I will not ring for ice water, but for a bellboy, and after he has climbed to the fifth floor-bellboys are not per mitted to use the elevator, you know and I shall not take a room lower than the fifth floor-when he has climbed up there I will tell him I was t some ice water.

"I will drink all the ice water I can and pour the rest in a cuspidor. Then I will ring for more ice water. After that I shall order a cocktail served in my room. I don't drink, but there must be variety in my scheme. Then I will decide to take a Turkish bath and will call a boy to earry my grip down to the bathroom. When I return. I will ring for more ice water.

"I will insist on having the same bellboy serve me all the time, and I'll keep him chasing around until he will curse me at every step. Then when I get ready to leave and he is happy to think he shall never see my cursed face again I will give him a dollar You know I couldn't think of putting a boy to all that trouble without rewarding him, because I have been through the mill myself. What I have just described happens to a bellboy every day of his life-all except get ting the dollar when it is over."-Kan sas City Times.

TRAINING HORSES.

Preparing the New Animals For the Circus Ring.

All through the winter circus men are training the animals for new tricks form of government in Hawaii, and it for the next summer. The winter is by no means an idle time. Training horses for the ring is interesting work The first thing done is to put the new horses in the stables with the old cir cus horses to get them used to their new company, and a queer thing no ticed is that the old horses are jealous of the newcomers.

A great deal of patience and time is required to train the horses to run around the ring. They are blindfolded and taught to run around the ring in a circle. The natural tendency of the horse is to run straight, and it is a hard thing for him to learn. A sys tem of checks and lines makes the training easier than formerly.

The horse is an observant animal and apt to do what he sees another horse do, so when the blindfold is removed he is placed alongside an old trained horse, and the man who is to ride the new animal does tricks with W. Mitchell has now taken the form of an organized attempt by the the old ones, then tries them on the pupil. A good, intelligent horse soon learns and actually helps his rider.

Horses are very sensitive to applause and with that stimulus will do twice as much work as without. They are just as likely to lose their heads as human performers and have to be carefully watched. A well trained ring horse is easily worth $1,000, and rid ers who are stars usually own their horses. The most careful attention is given these animals. Before each act their backs are rubbed with resin which has to be washed off afterward -San Francisco Chronicle.

TWO CENTS

Reduced to Eating Horseflesh, at Kimberley.

BOERS PRESS THE TOWN CLOSER.

Apparently Have Taken All Their Big Guns From Mafeking to Shell the Place-Part of the Force From Modder River Gone There.

LONDON, Feb. 12.-4:40 a. m.-Startfing intelligence comes from Kimberley in the Cape newspapers just received by mail in London. It appears that since In. 8 the rations at Kimberley have been for the most part horseflesh, so repugnant to women and children that many refuse to eat. It also appears that the death rate has been heavy, and that the privations of the garrison have been increasing steadily.

This news is startling because the censor has not allowed it to be cabled. Possibly such conditions explain the presence of Lord Roberts at Modder river and the apparent preparations for an advance from that point.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—The war office issued the following dispatch, dated Feb. 11, from the general commanding at

"Clements reports from Rensburg that on Friday, Feb. 9, the Boers tried to turn his right flank, but were beaten off. Position maintained. Casualties small.

"Kimberley reports that the Boer fighting force was apparently increased on Wednesday, Feb. 7. Next day the Boers commenced the construction of trenches to the east nearly parallel to the Glacis and 4,000 yards from the Premier mine. A native reported that he accompanied some Boers who left Mafeking for Kimberley, carrying with them a six-inch gun and a quick-firing field gun. The former opened fire on Kim-

"Otherwise the situation is unchanged."

Modder River, Saturday, Feb. 10.—Apparently the Boers have Bought all their big guns from Mafeking to shell Kimberley. Our naval guns shelled Magersfontein today, but the Boer guns were silent.

It is supposed the enemy have withdrawn their artillery. They are blowing up the permanent way beyond Morton

The Boers still man their trenches, but their numbers are apparently reduced. The bulk of their force has gone to Kimberley or toward our flank.

The Highlanders returned last night. Before retiring they found the bodies of 12 Boers. They believe the losses of the enemy were heavier than those of the British, because that in addition to the dead Boers found several had been

JOUBERT TRYING

TO OUTFLANK BULLER.

Such a Rumor at Durban-Churchill Said Buller Would Try Again-Explains Situation.

DURBAN, Feb. 12.—It was rumored here that General Joubert was marching with a column of 6,000 men to outflank General Buller.

London, Feb. 12.—Winston Churchill sent from Frere Camp to The Morning Post a long review of the situation. He

General Buller always thought it impossible to hold the triangle of Natal north of the Tugela, but the initial mistake was made owing to the miscalculation of the Boer strength and the fact that millions worth of stores had been collected at Ladysmith. From the first he regarded the relief of Ladysmith as a forlorn hope. He did not feel justified in ordering a subordinate to perform such a doubtful

The absence of good maps has cost much blood. An attempt to thrust the enemy back from Brakfontein or Doorn Kloof would have cost 3,000 men, and since at least two brigades must keep the door open behind us, too few would have remained to force the way to Ladymith. Moreover, General Buller remembers that his army is the only army for the defense for the rest of Natal. Therefore he decided to withdraw and to try elsewhere.

Remembering that considerations of honor, more than policy, demand ceaseless efforts to reheve Ladysmith, the whole army, despite disappointments and retreat, regards General Buller with sympathy and trust such as are seldom seen even in fortunate circumstances. ital here.

Another fierce attempt will be made to force the Tugela. Great Britain must realize the ugly fact that the relief of Ladysmith would strain an army of 50,000 and that 100,000 men would not be too many. The country, therefore, must be prepared for a heavy loss and realize the total strain and the strain and the strain army of 50,000 and that 100,000 men would not be too many. perhaps for disappointment.

The security of southern Natal is our important consideration. The necessity of obtaining control of Delagoa bay is very apparent. The ingress of foreigners and war material is ceaseless. Surely a settlement with Portugal would be only a question of money.

VICTORIANS HAD TO RETIRE.

Boers Got on a Hill and Fired Down on Them.

RENSBURG, Feb. 12.-A picket of five Victorian rifles, after holding a post for some hours Saturday, was forced to retire, the Boers getting on a hill and C firing down upon them. Three were slightly wounded, one is missing and one escaped unhurt.

Out of a patrol from Tjusfontein, under Captain Hamilton, composed of eight of General French's scouts only two Tasmanians and three scouts returned. The others were captured by the Boers.

Roberts Made Complaints.

MODDER RIVER, Feb. 11.-Lord Roberts has addressed another letter to Presidents Kruger and Steyn, complaining of the wanton destruction of property in Natal.

OUTFLANKED BRITISH.

Boers Got Around Them on Two Sides, Near Rensberg-English Convoys Gotten Through.

RENSBERG, Feb. 12.—The Boers outflanked the British here Friday. A considerable force of the enemy was threatening the British communications between Rensberg and Slingersfortein, 12 miles away, and, during a reconnoissance by some Inniskillings and 20 Australians from Slingersfontein, the Boers were discovered attempting to get a gun into position to shell the British camp.

The Australians, having come into very close contact with the enemy, took cover under a hill about 9,000 yards from the camp. Thereupon the Boers took up a position with a view of preventing their retirement. Some Burghers got within 200 yards of the Australians and called upon them to surrender. They replied by fixing bayonets and shouting defiance.

Sergeant Edwards and two men made a dash, and, gallopiug under a hot fire, passed a number of hills held by the Boers, took word that the Australians were safe, and confident of holding the enemy at bay and of getting out after dark, which they eventually did, getting their guns in position. The three wounded.

The convoys were successfully gotten to Slingersfontein Saturday, the British escorts having had several brushes with parties of from 20 to 30 Boers infesting the region. Lieutenant Colonel Page. with a section of artillery and 150 horse, got one large convoy through by shelling the enemy out of the road.

The Boers also outflanked us on the west, placed a gun in position at Bastards Nek and fired on one of our outposts, driving off 1,000 sheep.

In Wednesday's brush two Australian correspondents, Messrs. Sambie and Sales, who fell behind, were captured. The British took two prisoners.

Filipinos Also Shoot From Hills at United States Garrisons-Scatter When Pursued-Smallpox Attacks the American Troops Along the Railroad.

MANILA, Feb. 12.—The insurgents in Albay province, Luzon, adopted harrassing tactics against the towns which the Americans have garrisoned. They camp in the hills and maintain a constant fire upon the American outposts. When the troops sally against them, they scatter, returning when the Americans retire.

They shoot burning arrows and have thus burned a large part of the town of Albay. Indeed, most of the larger towns in that province are practically deserted except by the garrisons. Scarcely any of the inhabitants return to their homes. They are camping in the interior, and it is supposed armed insurgents prevent them going back. It is reported that there is much suffering among them owing to the lack of food. As a result of these conditions the hemp business in that section is seriously hindered, and ships going for cargoes are compelled to take gangs of coolies to do their loading. Hemp held in the interior is quite inaccessible.

Colonel Bell will take two regiments and a battery through the provinces of North Camarines and South Camarines, going there on transports. Many insurgents retreated to that part of the island from Cavite and Batangas prov-

Another expedition will soon start to garrison towns along the north coast of the Island of Mindanao.

Guerilla warfare continues south of Manila. Two attempts have been made to ambush the Americans. Colonel Schwan, while returning to Manila with his staff and an escort of a hundred cavalry from Batangas, was attacked by the insurgents. The latter were dispersed, but the Americans had five men wounded. Lieutenant Colonel Beacom, with six companies of the Forty-second infentry, held about a two-hour's fight with General Pio Del Pilar's command, which at-tempted to ambush the Americans along the trail through Morong province, near the lake. Here also the insurgents were dispersed, but the Americans had several wounded, among them a captain.

Another expedition is proceeding northward from Subig.

It is reported that the insurgent general Alejandro has recovered from his wound and has assembled a large force in that district. The plague continues. Eight cases were reported last week among the natives and Chinese. There is no excitement, however, and business and social life are undisturbed. Smallpox is prevalent among the natives along the railroad in the towns in the northern coast. Two officers of the 36th volunteer infantry have died of the disease and another officer and sevral soldiers have been stricken.

AN ALLIANCE PRACTICALLY EXISTS

England and Portugal Have About Reached an Agreement.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—There exists what practically amounts to an offensive and defensive alliance between Great Britain and Portugal.

The real reason for the tremendous military activity is a determination to convince Portugal that it is advisable to meet Great Britain's demands regarding the ports essential for carrying on the Boer war, namely, Delagoa Bay and Beira, and at the same time, having secured Portugal's assent to every proposition made, be in a position to support that country against a united European opposition.

Portugal's minister here, Senor Pinto de Soveral, is almost as much an Englishman as a Portuguese, and his government is only too willing to do every-thing, far beyond the bounds of neutrality, to help Great Britain to protect Portugal. Lord Salisbury has this week taken definite measures regarding the aforementioned ports that can only be ily.

Portugal, bending to the modicum of coercion and convinced that Great Britain is able to uphold her, has acquiesced until there practically exists an alliance of the strongest fiber between Great Britain and Portugal. Yet for reasons of diplomacy nothing would be more quickly officially denied in London or Lisbon.

Reduced to Eating Horseflesh, at Kimberley.

BOERS PRESS THE TOWN CLOSER.

Apparently Have Taken All Their Big Guns From Mafeking to Shell the Place-Part of the Force From Modder River Gone There.

LONDON, Feb. 12.-4:40 a. m.-Startling intelligence comes from Kimberley in the Cape newspapers just received by aguil in London. It appears that since I.m. 8 the rations at Kimberley have been for the most part horseflesh, so repugnant to women and children that many refuse to eat. It also appears that the death rate has been heavy, and that the privations of the garrison have been increasing steadily.

This news is startling because the censor has not allowed it to be cabled. Possibly such conditions explain the presence of Lord Roberts at Modder river and the apparent preparations for an advance from that point.

London, Feb. 12.—The war office issued the following dispatch, dated Feb.

11, from the general commanding at

"Kimberley reports that the Boer fighting force was apparently increased on Wednesday, Feb. 7. It is supposed the enemy have with-drawn their artillery. They are blowing up the permanent way beyond Morton

The Boers still man their trenches, but their numbers are apparently re duced. The bulk of their force has gone to Kimberley or toward our flank.

The Highlanders returned last night. Before retiring they found the bodies of 12 Boers. They believe the losses of the enemy were heavier than those of the British, because that in addition to the dead Boers found several had been

JOUBERT TRYING TO OUTFLANK BULLER.

Such a Rumor at Durban-Churchill Said Buller Would Try Again-Explains Situation.

Durban, Feb. 12.—It was rumored here that General Joubert was marching with a column of 6,000 men to outflank General Buller.

London, Feb. 12.—Winston Churchill sent from Frere Camp to The Morning Post a long review of the situation. He

General Buller always thought it impossible to hold the triangle of Natal north of the Tugela, but the initial mistake was made owing to the miscalculation of the Boer strength and the fact that millions worth of stores had been collected at Ladysmith. From the first he regarded the relief of Ladysmith as a forforn hope. He did not feel justified in ordering a subordinate to perform such a doubtful The absence of good maps has cost much blood. An attempt to thrust the enemy back from Brakfontein or Doorn Kloof would have cost 8,000 men, and since at least two brigades must keep the door open behind us, too few would have remained to force the way to Ladymith. Moreover, General Buller remembers that his army is the only army for the defense for the rest of Natal. Therefore he decided to withdraw and to try elsewhere.

Remembering that considerations of honor, more than policy, demand ceaseless efforts to relieve Ladysmith, the whole army, despite disappointments and retreat, regards General Buller with sympathy and trust such as are seldom seen even in fortunate circumstances.

Another fierce attempt will be made to force the Tugela. Great Britain must realize the ugly fact that the relief of Ladysmith would strain an army of 50,000 and that 100,000 men would not be too many. The country, therefore, must be prepared for a heavy loss and perhaps for disappointment.

The security of southern Natal is our important consideration. The necessity of obtaining control of Delagoa bay is very apparent. The ingress of foreigners and war material is ceaseless. Surely a settlement with Portu-gal would be only a question of money.

VICTORIANS HAD TO RETIRE.

Boers Got on a Hill and Fired Down on Them.

RENSBURG, Feb. 12.-A picket of five Victorian rifles, after holding a post for some hours Saturday, was forced to retire, the Boers getting on a hill and firing down upon them. Three were slightly wounded, one is missing and one escaped unhurt.
Out of a patrol from Tjusfontein, under Captain Hamilton, composed of eight of General French's scouts only two Tasmanians and three scouts returned. The others were captured by the Boers.

Roberts Made Complaints.

MODDER RIVER, Feb. 11.-Lord Roberts has addressed another letter to Presidents Kruger and Steyn, complaining of the wanton destruction of property in Natal.

OUTFLANKED BRITISH.

Boers Got Around Them on Two Sides, Near Rensberg-English Convoys Gotten Through.

RENSBERG, Feb. 12.—The Boers outflanked the British here Friday. A considerable force of the enemy was threatening the British communications between Rensberg and Slingersfontein, 12 miles away, and, during a reconnoissance by some Inniskillings and 20 Australians from Slingersfontein, the Boers were discovered attempting to get a gun

The Australians, having come into very close contact with the enemy, took cover under a hill about 9,000 yards from the camp. Thereupon the Boers took up a position with a view of preventing their retirement. Some Burghers got within 200 yards of the Australians and called upon them to surrender.
They replied by fixing bayonets and shouting defiance.

Sergeant Edwards and two men made a dash, and, gallopiug under a hot fire, passed a number of hills held by the Boers, took word that the Australians were safe, and confident of holding the enemy at bay and of getting out after dark, which they eventually did,

The Iniskilling prevented the enemy getting their guns in position. The Australians lost one man killed and three wounded.

The convoys were successfully gotten to Slingersfontein Saturday, the British escorts having had several brushes with parties of from 20 to 30 Boers infesting the region. Lieutenant Colonel Page, with a section of artillery and 150 horse, got one large convoy through by shelling the enemy out of the road.

The Boers also outflanked us on the west, placed a gun in position at Bastards Nek and fired on one of our outposts, driving off 1,000 sheep.

In Wednesday's brush two Australian correspondents, Messrs. Sambie and Sales, who fell behind, were captured. The British took two prisoners.

Tongatine was highly recommended to me and I determined to give it a thorough trial. I took six or eight teaspoonful doses daily, diluted in water, with plenty of hot water and inside of two days was relieved to such an extent that the pain had almost entirely left me. By continuing the treatment a short time longer I was thoroughly cured and I am gratified to state that there has been no recurrence of the trouble. Since then I have frequently recommended Tongaline to friends suffering from rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, etc. and I have yet to hear of a single instance where it failed to cure the disease."

TAYLORTO TRY COURT.

Will Make Appeal to Federal Judge.

ACTION EXPECTED THIS WEEK.

The Case Involving the Minor Offices Comes Up Today Democrats' Application In Direuit Court, at Frankfort, Scheduled to Be Heard Today.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 12.—It is reported that the Republicans will this week seek to bring the contest for the offices of governor and lieutenant governor before the federal court. Former Governor Bradley, chief counsel for the Republicans in their application before Judge Taft to restrain the state election commissioners from proceeding with the contests for the minor offices, was in town in consultation with leading Republican lawyers.

The case involving the minor offices comes up to-day at Cincinnati and it is believed the other case will also be taken before Judge Taft, although it is not likely that anything will be done. until after to-morrow. On that day the application of the Democrats for an injunction to restrain Governor Taylor from interfering with the legislature will come up in the circuit court at Frankfort. The case has been continued from time to time by the Democrats, pending the peace negotiations. It is expected a temporary injunction will be granted. The case will then be taken to the court of appeals, the state court of last resort. Upon whether or not an appeal to the federal court will lie depends the Republican hope of relief from that quarter.

The legislature will remain here at least until it has receeived a report from the committee which, it was believed, would be appointed today to investigate conditions at Frankfort. It is not thought the members will return to the capital while soldiers are about the state buildings.

TAYLOR MADE TANGLE WORSE THAN EVER

Complicated Legal Phase of the Trouble by the Recent Moves He Has Made.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 12.—The collapse of the peace negotiations through Governor Taylor's rejection of the Louisville agreement, and the latter's action in calling off the London legislature and reconvening the legislature in Frankfort and practically withdrawing the troops, have left the fight over state officers divested of many of its warlike features, but in a worse legal tangle than ever.

The new alighments of the parties after these developments are as follows: The Republicans will stand on the legality pf

Governor Taylor's prpclamation and adjourn-ing the legislature to meet at London, and will hold to be illegal all acts of the Democratic legislature since the date of that proclamation. chief among which are the adoption of the reports of the contest boards and the declaration of the election of Governor Goebel and Lieutenant Governor Beckham.

If the Democratic legislators go back to Frankfort, the Republicans will insist that John Marshall and not L. H. Carter is lieutenant governor and president of the senate. They are free to take the matter of the governorship to the federal courts if they can make a case in which such an appeal will lie. If the Democrats refuse to return to Frankfort, they may attempt to force the attendance of absentees. Meanwhile, they will press the suit before Judge Taft, involving the minor state offices.

The Democrats will dispute the legality of Governor Taylor's proclamation adjourning the legislature to London and back again to Frankfort. They will contend that the legis-lature was dispersed by soldiers and adjourned to Louisville by its own action in adopting with a working quorum a concurrent resolution to that effect; that its acts have been legal, including that by which Goebel was declared governor; that by another concurrent resolution it may return to Frankfort when conditions warrant, as it is the only authority by which its sessions may be transferred from one place to another; that under the law the legislature is the court of last resprt in a contest for the offices of governor and lieutenant governor. Meanwhile Beckham will be recognized by this legislature as the legal governor.

TROOPS LEAVE FRANKFORT.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 12.-Troops have poured out of Frankfort on special trains, and only the soldiers from Covington, Newport, Lexington and Morgantown were camped in the capitol

Adjutant General Collier said that only a few companies of infantry would be kept on duty here for a short time to do police work around the capitol square and guard the public building. They would, he said, interfere in no way with the actions of the members of the Legislature. Access to the legislative halls would be as free and unrestrained as it was before Governor Taylor issued the proclamation declaring Frankfort in a state of insurrection.

Some of the members of the Republican legislature may arrive from London lo-day. Six came last night.

No intimetion was received here as to whether or not the Democratic members of the legislature would adjourn their session at Louisville and come to Frankfort to take part in the general session. It is believed here, however, that they will do so, probably by the latter part of Jurymen So Intimated as to Views of Jury In the Molineux Case. Prisoner Cool.

FEW YORK, Feb. 12.- All of the members of the jury that found Molineux guilty of first degree murder, owing to the poisoning of Mrs. Katherine J. Adams, refused to answer definite questions as to what had transpired in the jury room, but one of them, desirous of imparting some information regarding the final proceedings of the celebrated case, made a statement, saying in part:

If I were going to write as a reporter about it, I would probably commence by saying the was a unit upon the guilt of the defendant; that one, two, or perhaps three of them, however, thought it well to go through the case, discuss the various phases of it, and see if the evidence, beyond a most reasonable doubt, would warrant such a verdict. Understand, this is all under the supposition that I am acting as a reporter and writing about something I am trying to guess about. I would probably explain the length of time the jury was out, by this: That by the time the two or three particularly interested men, in reviewing the case, had gone over it with great care, assisted by careful notes, and the remainder of the jurors made a few comments, nine hours were con-

"He slept like a child," was the way the warden put it, referring to Molineux after his return to his cell from the court room on Saturday night. Sunday he arose at the usual hour, took exercise for one hour in the prison yard, ate the breakfast supplied by the prison caterer and read with composure the morning newspapers, after which he attended the usual Sunday services.

The condemned man had but one visitor Sunday, his grief-stricken and venerable father, who has not yet given up hope, and expects that the higher courts, which will be appealed to, will free his Gen. Molineux arrived at the prison about 8:30 o'clock Sunday morning and remained with the prisoner for about half an hour.

During the day young Molineux remained in his cell in murderers' row.

REBUKE OF FILIPINOS

When Soldiers Get Drunk, They Call Them "Bad People"-Fearful Growth of Traffic.

Washington, Feb. 12.—Captain Frank M. Wells, chaplain of the First regiment of volunteers, who has just returned from the Philippine islands, spoke in Garfield Memorial church under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. on the liquor question in the Philippine islands. He declared that since the Americans took Manila four hundred places where liquor is sold had sprung up in Manila, while before the Americans came to the islands Manila had only three saloons. The Filipinos, he asserted, spoke well of the American soldiers save that they said the Americans were "bad people" when they had drunk too much liquor. Whisky, he said, was sold in the barracks at Iloilo, not over 150 feet from his headquarters, until he put an end to it by complaints to the colonel and provost marshal. The transport Indiana, on which he had returned to the United States, he characterized as a "whisky transport," and he said that he had unsuccessfully attempted to have the sale of liquors on transports stopped while in the Philippines.

EURRENCY BILL WILL PASS.

Opposition Admits a Formidable Majority-Final Vote to Be Taken on Thursday.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.-The currency bill will be voted on in the senate on Thursday, and all the time not given to such routine business as the introduction of bills and the presentation of reports and petitions will be devoted to this measure until it is acted upon by the senate. Monday and Tuesday will be consumed with set arguments for and against the bill prepared in advance and Wednesday and Thursday will be devoted to speeches not exceeding ten minutes in duration on the various amendments to the bill. The most important of these amendments is that offered by the Democrats through Senator Jones, of Arkansas, for the free coinage of silver on terms of equality with gold.

The Democrats count upon getting all the Democrats, Populistic and Silver Republican votes except those of Senators Caffery and Lindsay, Gold Democrats, for their free coinage amendment, but they will still fall far short of the necessary number. No one doubts the passage of the bill by a large reajority on the final vote. Senator Aldrich says he counts upon a majority of twenty or twenty-two votes. The opposition do Washington, Feb. 12.-Representative W. S. Knox, of Massachusetts, chairman of the house committee on territories, has completed his report upon the bill for the creation of a territorial form of government in Hawaii, and it will be submitted to the house today.

Chairman Knox says there is imperative need of early enactment of an organic act for Hawaii, as it has become apparent that there is much doubt of the extent of the power granted to the local government of Hawaii by the provisions of the joint resolution of annexation, and in many important respects there is something like an interregnum in

TRAINING HORSES.

Preparing the New Animals For the Circus Ring.

All through the winter circus men are training the animals for new tricks for the next summer. The winter is by no means an idle time. Training horses for the ring is interesting work The first thing done is to put the new horses in the stables with the old cir cus horses to get them used to their new company, and a queer thing no ticed is that the old horses are jealous of the newcomers.

A great deal of patience and time is required to train the horses to run around the ring. They are blindfolded and taught to run around the ring in a circle. The natural tendency of the horse is to run straight, and it is a hard thing for him to learn. A system of checks and lines makes the training easier than formerly.

The horse is an observant animal and apt to do what he sees another horse do, so when the blindfold is removed he is placed alongside an old trained horse, and the man who is to ride the new animal does tricks with the old ones, then tries them on the pupil. A good, intelligent horse soon learns and actually helps his rider. Horses are very sensitive to applause and with that stimulus will do twice as much work as without. They are just as likely to lose their heads as human performers and have to be carefully watched. A well trained ring horse is easily worth $1,000, and rid ers who are stars usually own their horses. The most careful attention is given these animals. Before each act their backs are rubbed with resin. which has to be washed off afterward -San Francisco Chronicle.
